Itinerary

Food culture has shaped the landscape of the region around Lake Constance. You start this tour with a visit to the famous Reichenau Island, later that day you visit the state winery of Meersburg with its modern technologies and its long tradition in wine making. We head to the “green gold” hops which is the main ingredient of beer with a visit of the hops trail and museum in Tettngang, as well as the Mohren Beer Experience Museum in Dornbirn. After that continue your journey in Feldkirch with the “Schnabulieren & Degustieren” tour. On your way to Arbon, stop at the Principality of Liechtenstein where you definitely need to pay a visit to the Prince of Liechtenstein Winery in Vaduz. Discover the Momö Museum in Arbon before you head to the Chocolarium – the chocolate factory of happiness in Flawil. The last stops on the tour are a visit of the distillery Marcado where you get to know old whiskey tradition and a cheese fondue over an open fireplace in a magical romantic atmosphere in the forest near Kreuzlingen.
